

Segregated Basis Continues

Two Negro Students Fail To Show Up At Georgia U.

ATLANTA (AP) — The University of Georgia continued operating on a segregated basis today because two Negroes ordered admitted by a federal court failed to show up for classes.

"The moment they appear on campus, pay their registration fees and walk into a classroom Gov. Ernest Vandiver will sign an order for immediate closure of the university," an unimpeachable source close to the chief executive told The Associated Press.

This source explained that integration actually begins only when they report at a classroom. Then a state law cutting off funds becomes operative.

Charline A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, the Negroes who seek to further their education at Georgia, were reported in Atlanta this morning. It was learned that Holmes had been scheduled to appear at a 9 a.m. class, but did not appear.

In the absence of the Negroes and an official order from Vandiver, fewer than normal white students presented themselves for first classes at 8 a.m.

At the university, President O. C. Adendorff went into conference with the school's administrative council. They were awaiting word from the governor.

Some students had packed and returned to their homes for a vacation after hearing that Vandiver would shut the school until the legislature can act to repeal the funds cutoff provision in state law.

Donald L. Hollowell, chief counsel for the Negroes, was reported en route to Macon, Ga., 100 miles south of Atlanta, apparently to seek some new federal court order.

Vandiver announced at midnight Monday that he would cut off operating funds if integration came.

State Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook flew to Washington to appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court for a last-minute delay.

Vandiver asked the legislature Monday night to repeal the law which would cut off funds to the university.

Vandiver, in tossing the red-hot political potato into the legislature's lap, speculated the university could be reopened within a week—apparently on an integrated basis—if the segregation law is repealed without delay.

"I will not be a party to defiance of the law as many would wish," Vandiver said in referring to U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle's order to admit the Negroes.

The governor said he had every confidence the students at the university would "act as ladies and gentlemen" during the crisis.

About 2,000 white students trailed Holmes and Miss Hunter around the campus as they completed registration Monday, boozing and yelling but offering them no violence. Earlier, nearly 3,000 students had signed petitions urging that the university be kept open even if integrated.

Goals Given By Kennedy For 4 Years

Courage, Judgment, Integrity Pledged; Mortgage To No One

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy says his goal is an administration of "courage — judgment — integrity — dedication in the four stormy years that lie ahead."

He solemnly pledges that the new Democratic administration will be mortgaged to no individual or group—economic, racial or political.

He made the pledge late Monday in his first formal address since the election — a nostalgic talk in his home state at a joint session of the Massachusetts Legislature.

"Of those to whom much is given, much is required," Kennedy said in promising that, with God's help, he will try to give much to the nation.

Kennedy's schedule for today—in Manhattan and Washington—is jammed. He booked nine conferences here and in the capital and goes to Florida tonight.

Monday was divided between Boston and Harvard University at Cambridge—a day during which he was mobbed by exuberant Harvard students welcoming an old grad, and a day punctuated by a series of business meetings.

Kennedy closed out the day with relaxation in New York. On arrival from Boston by private plane he scurried to a hasty dinner at Club 21, then went off to see a Broadway hit musical, "Do Re Mi," starring Phil Silvers.

A dispatch by Paul P. Kennedy from Retalhuleu, near the southwest coast of Guatemala, said the United States also helped finance the construction of a nearby airfield where intensive daily air training is going on.

"Guatemalan authorities from President Miguel Ydígoras Fuentes down insist that the military effort is designed to meet an assault, expected almost any day, from Cuba," said the dispatch.

The maneuvers would serve as a "covering play" for ships and planes bringing invaders, the newspapers charged.

The semi-official "Revolucion" charged the United States is mining Guantanamo Bay and unloading large quantities of medicine at the base.

"Revolucion," said the U.S. supercarrier Franklin D. Roosevelt, which visited Guantanamo Bay Monday will be incorporated with several destroyers into a combat unit to be stationed in the area.

U.S. Aiding Guatemala In Possible Cuba Clash

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States is supplying Guatemala with training personnel, material and other assistance in the preparation of commando-type force for a possible clash with Cuba, the New York Times reported today.

A dispatch by Paul P. Kennedy from Retalhuleu, near the southwest coast of Guatemala, said the United States also helped finance the construction of a nearby airfield where intensive daily air training is going on.

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, denied there was aggressive intent behind the maneuvers, which started Monday. The Marines will train on Vieques Island, off the coast of Puerto Rico and about 1,375 miles east of Havana. While ships of the maneuver force will call from time to time at the U.S. Navy base on Guantanamo Bay, the Navy said, the exercise had been planned some time ago.

The government-controlled Cuban press denounced the naval activity as warmongering and provocative.

"Prensa Libre" said the maneuvers were designed to encourage counter-revolutionaries "supplied by the Pentagon and Central Intelligence Agency" in case their enthusiasm had been dampened by Cuba's display of military might in a huge parade in Havana Jan. 2.

Her husband, William, 52, was in the store to get a TV set fixed by repairman John Bintemire, 32.

"My husband's hair was on fire. It was singed through."

She said the windshield and a headlight on her car cracked and glass ground itself into the paint.

A small fire that followed the explosion was confined to the J. and J. Radio and TV Store where Bintemire worked.

Group Hears State Aide

Mental Health Clinic Seen
Possible For County's Use

The possibility of establishing a mental health clinic in the county is being considered by the Ohio Division of Mental Hygiene.

He added, "The clinic must be staffed by a full-time psychiatrist, social worker, psychologist and clerk. The state will not accept a part-time psychiatrist," he added.

In discussing state funds, Dr. Luidens said that if the county would raise $15,000, a figure suggested as the possible amount needed, the state would participate at the rate of two-to-one, or $30,000, making a grand total of $45,000.

But, he pointed out, even if the money is raised, it is no indication that a clinic can be established because psychiatrists are not readily available.

He suggested three sources of local funds — an appropriation by county commissioners or a special levy outside the 10-mill limitation, a share in a United Fund or Community Chest, or private memberships and contributions.

Dr. Luidens said Ohio ranks third in the nation in its mental health program. He said New York is first, followed by Pennsylvania. The state has 38 clinics. "The interest, enthusiasm and perseverance of the local community is a

Only One Pump To A Lobby

There's nothing new about the recommendation of one of President-elect Kennedy's study groups for a $3½ billion federal outlay on education.

This is one of the obsessions of the big-government people—that vast federal outlays on education would transform the educational process.

It's a carryover, or perhaps a full brother, of the obsession that the United States can save civilization if it appropriates enough money.

Some of us don't think it's that easy with civilization, or with education, either. We think the big-government people haven't studied their psychology.

Whenever federal money is pumped out, the line forms on the right. All other lines are discontinued, abandoned, ruled out of order and thrown out of business.

The spending lobby gravitates by instinct to the pump that throws the biggest stream of water. So do the politicians—the specialists who know how to manipulate the pump handles.

THE SUREST WAY to discontinue local support for education is to start the rumor that the big money is going to come from Washington. Everybody and his brother thereupon will make a beeline for the prime source.

Back home, taxpayers who have been deciding whether or not to support this or that school levy will quit supporting all school levies. They will let Washington pay the freight. They will shift all responsibility to Uncle Sugar.

Their school officials will spend half their time commuting to and from Washington, soaping up the people who will render the make-or-break decisions. It will be the same way it has been with highways and housing since Washington got into the picture.

Before a stuttering school board member can say to a federal bureaucrat in the educational pump-room, "G-g-g-give us another m-m-m-million", the Potomac spenders will have run short of money, just as they are running short at the highway pump and always have been short at the housing pump.

MORE TAXES then will be sweat out of the people who have the wherewithal to pay taxes. They will be stuck for the total cost of education in the United States. It will be minority support for a majority's responsibility.

The dead-heads, poor-mouths. Slippery Sams and segregationists who want two school systems for the price of none will be sticking a few federal taxpayers for the bill.

It's not a pretty picture. It makes some of us wince to look at it with our eyes half-closed. Our fervent hope is that the big-government people will look at it with their eyes wide-open.

The surest way to take the zip out of education would be to make everybody trot down to the District of Columbia to plead for money. The surest way to keep the zip in it is to make everybody keep trotting from door to door to plead for support at the polls.

It isn't that America can't afford to pay as much to educate its children as it pays for lollipops. It's only that some Americans are obsessed with the scheme to shift responsibility to Washington and then not pay anything at all if they can wiggle out of their federal taxes.

But Find The Right Name!

One of the most interesting proposals that will be put before Congress this year is for a proposed "peace corps" of young Americans to help underdeveloped countries. These people would serve abroad at nominal pay to put into effect the spirit and theory of the foreign aid program wherever manpower was needed. They would augment and in some places replace older Americans now doing similar work.

This project would be separate from another proposal also slated to come before Congress for a revival of the Civilian Conservation Corps inside the United States, to provide useful work for young men unable to find employment in private industry.

The overseas workers would be college graduates. The young Americans who would be doing similar duty at home would be younger, with less education. The distinction between the two groups would have to be maintained. Candidates for overseas service would be candidates later for foreign service jobs in many cases. They would be expected to learn the languages of the countries that asked for their services, to become experts in the same sense that the best missionaries always have learned everything they could learn about the people they were helping.

Nothing could be more important at the outset of discussion of the project in the new Congress than to find the right name. "Peace Corps" is not a good name. It smacks of the slippery nomenclature of the Communist Conspiracy, which is overfond of the word "peace."

Registration, No. 1 'Practicality'

Choice of Ohio Republican chairman Ray Bliss By Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, GOP national chairman, to study the "practicalities" of big-city voting, with a view to giving Republican candidates a fair shake, is a blow at the Democratic party.

The blow is deserved.

Starting in the '30s, Democratic organizations in the nation's cities went to work in earnest to sew up presidential elections by swamping the polls with their voters. If sheer numbers weren't enough, they had recourse to all the dodges of corrupt machine politics, from intimidation of non-Democratic voters to padding registration lists and juggling returns.

These are the "practicalities" Ohio Republican chairman Bliss will look into—not with a view to matching them, not with a view to imitating them, but with a view to offsetting them with election safeguards. This is not a partisan project.

Republicans abused the election system when they controlled key cities like Philadelphia and Chicago. It is a temptation to whichever party is dominant in population centers. What has made it a particularly strong temptation for Democrats is the fact they have been dominant in the cities during a period when population shifts have been weakening Republican voting strength by drawing Republican voters into suburban areas.

Ray Bliss, who is a potential successor to the GOP national chairman, has his work cut out for him. Fortunately, he has a pattern of his own to follow—hard work in all precincts to get all Republican voters registered and to give them the strength to offset the Democratic party's big-city machines. That was the secret of carrying Ohio for the Republican presidential ticket in 1960.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

We told her the weather item had been forced into a corner by strikes, insurrections, air tragedies and economic crises.

"What's new with Liz Fisher and Marilyn Monroe," she persisted.

"Liz's publicity staff has surrendered to SEATO, De Gaulle, Fidel Castro, Gamel Nasser, Lumumba and Kasavubu. Marilyn has been sideswiped by events in the Near East, Far East, Central America and Africa," we told her.

"Anything about Frankie Sinatra in the paper?" she persisted. "Even Frankie is having trouble breaking through the street rioting and jungle battles," we said.

"Let me see the woman's page," she demanded.

"Wait until I get through with the news about a new low-cost atom bomb that can help wipe out civilization," we ordered him.

"I know how it is. Yesterday I thought I had cornered an item about a local scandal but it disappeared behind the situation in Algeria, Bangkok, Leopoldville and the Guantanamo Naval base. Is there anything about a snowstorm headed here?" the wife continued.

Gen. Quesada has resigned as aviation administration chief and will take over operations of the new Washington ball club soon. This is really jumping out of an airplane without a parachute.

VICTOR R. assured his colleagues, however, that the file of personnel being created in the International Affairs division would be the first source for the filling of government assignments.

There's Grumbling Among Labor Chiefs

By Victor Riesel

"I would appreciate completed cards," he said, "from both UAW members, especially men and women who have good experience in local union positions, as well as staff. Language ability is highly desirable but not essential."

"I anticipate, too, that exceptional opportunity will be presented to minority group members. . . . Fraternally, Victor Reuther."

There was no such boom market in optimism in other labor circles. Most of the grumbling came from the building and construction union leaders.

King Of The Beasts

By Truman Twill

As soon as they make me the king of America, something is going to be done about parking that will make your eyes pop.

The country will be put on six months' notice that all storage of vehicles on streets built for traffic will be absolutely prohibited.

Six months will be enough time for off-street parking space to be provided. No parker, no drivee—that will be the rule.

There will be a piteous wailing and weeping. But this is one of those situations where the logic is so airtight there is no argument.

No one would expect to park on one of the new expressways that represent the last word in design for highways.

Yet, by taking parked cars off all streets, hundreds of now congested and inefficient thoroughfares could be converted into expressways without spending a penny of public money.

Then everybody would be in Washington. Then they could confer with White House "people."

They would know whether they would have the same entry to 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., as they did during the years of FDR and HST when just a phone call set up a presidential conference.

Then the "transition" practically would be over—and the labor men would know exactly how the administration would fit union men into the government itself.

Not all the labor leaders grumbled.

Walter Reuther was certain the administration would come through. And Reuther would be prepared to supply candidates for posts if the bid came.

What interested the auto union leadership most was the State Department. This was obvious in a letter dispatched to many United Auto Workers' educational and regional directors.

THE LETTER was dispatched recently by Victor Reuther, head of the UAW's international affairs dept. It said, in part:

"To Executive Board Members, Education Staff: From time to time I have received requests from government and international labor agencies for UAW nominees for temporary and permanent assignment overseas, which I had great difficulties in making because there was no adequate file of potential candidates.

"I expect that the new administration will greatly expand its use of union people in the new nations and that, as a consequence, there will be even more requests of this nature in the future. ## Council Plans Lisbon Vote On 3-Mill Levy

LISBON — Council Monday night agreed to seek a vote on a new 3-mill levy on the May 2 primary ballot to raise approximately $18,000 annually for operating expenses.

This levy will be for two years. A similar levy was defeated at the Nov. 8 election. Councilmen voted 5-1 to submit the levy again.

Mayor Dean Stockman reported that the village during 1960 took in a total of $6,245 for fines and costs, bicycle licenses, park reservations and pinball machine licenses.

This amount is about $18,155 less than the village received in the past eight years in fines, costs and revenues which totaled $25,000 per year. Stockman said he handled 118 cases during the year.

Councilman Robert Kehm reported on the new charge being made by Council for opening a street in the village for water or gas lines or for other reasons. The new cost will be $5 per square foot. A meeting will be held with all contractors to go over the entire setup.

Clerk-treasurer Ray Hempstead reported that parking revenue has been declining each year with a total of $11,886 in 1960, $12,420 in 1959, $12,283 in 1958 and $12,719 in 1957. This does not include fines for violations.

The alley east of Jefferson St. between E. Lincoln Way and Chestnut St. will be made one-way for traffic going north off E. Lincoln Way, Council decided.

Council also authorized payment of $23 a month as half the salary for a watchman for school children at the intersection of W. Lincoln Way and Thomas Rd. The school pays the other half.

Council's next meeting will be Jan. 23, at 7:30 p. m.

Husband Given Jail For Abandoning Family

Dennie Frye, 38, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., was sentenced to 30 days in the County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a charge of neglect of his family.

Frye was arrested Saturday at 7:30 p. m. after he ejected his wife, Helene Frye, and their 5-month-old daughter, Pamela, from their car in front of Loblaw's market on Route 30, taking his 3-year-old son with him.

Mrs. Frye had no coat and her small daughter wore just a snow suit without a bonnet. East Liverpool police were given a description of the car and Frye was picked up.

The Columbiana County Welfare Department is taking care of the mother and two children until she can arrange to get home.

Role Of 'Queen' Given Former Oakmont Girl

Miss Judy Harp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harp of Jupiter, Fla., former residents of Oakmont, was chosen queen at the annual "Peppermint Prom" sponsored by the Athletic Association.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: We are 13-year-old identical twin girls. Mom has always dressed us alike. We didn't mind until lately. Mom agrees now that we are getting to be more grown up we ought to be able to express our own likes and dislikes. My twin sister and I don't agree on everything any more.

Our dad says we should dress alike because it looks cute. He and Mom have gotten into big arguments over this. We told him we don't want to dress alike any longer. He says we should do it to make him happy. We hate to go against him. What is your advice? —TWO OF A KIND.

Dear Two: It's unfair of your father to ask you to dress alike to "make him happy."

Dressing alike is an attention-getting gimmick. It defeats a central principle of rearing children which is to treat each child as an individual.

Legion Club's Project Aired

The Midland Legion Club heard a report on its $30,000 modeling project and elected new officers during a reorganization meeting Monday evening in the American Legion Post home.

Donald E. Roach, was re-elected to his third term as president, while the nominating committee urged, since the club is in the midst of remodeling.

Others are John Reider, re-elected first vice president; Raymond E. Seskey, second vice president; Truman E. Rodfong, secretary; Joseph Mulach, re-elected treasurer; Lester W. Barr, chaplain, and Woodrow W. Jones, sergeant-at-arms.

The seven directors elected include Neil W. Tilley, Eugene Fritz, Leo P. McGeehan, and William Riddle, all new, and Lester Trainer, George Huha and John Cavanaugh.

Roach read the annual financial report, which was approved, and he outlined the entire remodeling program and its progress.

The project is about half completed. It calls for remodeling the dance floor into a game room and lounge to be separated by a folding door.

The old bar is presently in the game room area while a new bar and accessories are being installed in the front room. A new central heating and air-conditioning unit has been installed.

In the game room and lounge, the ceiling has been lowered and paneling has been installed. A new office for officers will be adjacent to the game room. A women's lounge has been installed.

Victor Kosa of Youngstown is architect for the project which the club membership approved at a general meeting in September.

A moment of silence was observed for members who died in the last year. Lunch was served.

Port Clinton Mayor Won't Seek 4th Term

PORCLINTON, Ohio (AP)—George J. Teweres, who will complete his third term as mayor of Port Clinton this year, has announced he will not seek re-election.

He said in a statement Monday: "Like old shoes that are worn, they're still good. But you like to have a new pair. I feel the same way about my office as mayor." Teweres, a Democrat, has been a public office holder the past 20 years.

Most snails are both male and female.

ARE YOU COVERED?

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Some twins choose to dress alike because it sets them apart from the crowd. You two are apparently bright girls who want to be individuals—and hooray for you!

Tell your dad to please let you grow up as two people and not as halves of a single unit. God made each of us different. Insist on being yourselves. It's your birthright.

Finally he said, "Well, I'm going whether you are or not. It's the

Hancock Delegate To Present 6 Bills For New Legislature

WEIRTON — Miss Callie Tsapis, of Weirton, Hancock County's delegate to the State Legislature, plans to introduce at least 6 bills in the 1961 session which opens Wednesday in Charleston.

Miss Tsapis, who has been practicing law in Hancock County for 12 years, was re-elected to her second consecutive 2-year term in the Nov. 8 general election.

She is in line for membership to some of the top committees and possibly a chairmanship.

Among the bills she plans to introduce are:

A bill to grant Hancock 2 delegates instead of one on the basis of the 1960 census of 39,615. The county ranks 14th in the state. If the amendment is passed, the county will get 2 delegates effective with the 1962 election.

A bill to waive penalties now imposed on county courts for failure of the assessor to raise county assessments to within 50 per cent of the State Tax Commissioner's appraisal figures.

Hancock County Court lost some $46,000 last year because of the present law which authorized the Board of Education to absorb the funds for its own use. Her waiver would apply only to counties where reappraisal programs by professional teams are under way.

A bill to raise the pay of poll workers from $10 to $20 a day with provisions for food allowances for those who stay more than eight hours after the polls close.

Fireman's Home Scene Of 2 Fires

Of all things! Firemen have a report of fires Monday at the home of Asst. Fire Chief Dave Anderson.

A backfire through a carburetor set fire to the wiring in the 1955 sedan, firemen said.

Not one, but TWO!

They were called yesterday morning to his home at 1012 Avondale St. when fire in a clothes dryer began smouldering.

And last night Anderson reported a davenport was damaged when it caught fire from an electric heating pad. However, Anderson and his son succeeded in extinguishing the blaze without summoning firemen.

The department was called to a

Dresden Ave. service station at 7 p.m. Monday to quell a fire in an auto owned by Keith Emmerling.

Miss Bernice Coffin, board secretary, read a letter from the Chamber of Commerce, asking interested persons to attend the event of the chamber, Lions and Rotary Clubs Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at Deramo's Restaurant.

Dinner reservations were to be made by today with Paul McGeehan, Chamber secretary, at M-3-3282. Interested persons may attend the dinner or come for the program at 8 p.m.

James R. Woglor, who is in charge of the plan for Morris Knowles, Inc., Pittsburgh planning engineers, will be speaker.

On a motion by Maurice Newman, finance chairman, the board approved a resolution authorizing James Morrison, president, and Miss Coffin, secretary, to borrow money for bills as may be necessary from the Beaver Trust Co., Midland branch, or the First National Bank, or both.

Another motion by Newman was approved for a change in the salary schedule to allow non-professional employees, who are substituting, to receive the minimum salary for the position if they are employed continuously for a week or more.

A report on night classes held last semester was given by John Shovlin, education committee chairman. He pointed out there were only two classes, sewing and typing, the only ones with a qualified enrollment.

Some 20 are needed for all classes except comptometer. Any class will be taught when enough are enrolled and an instructor will be brought in if the school doesn't have one for a particular class. A drop in those interested in Americanization classes was pointed out by Supt. Ralph Jewell.

William A. Walters, Lincoln High principal, said registration for new night classes will be held next Monday and Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the high school. He said classes will start Jan. 23 and meet every Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. for a 10-week period.

Formerly, classes offered included physical education for men and for women, comptometer, typing, sewing, and Americanization. A $2 registration fee charged residents is refunded if they attend 75 per cent of the classes. Non-resident fees are $9.95, which is not returned. Any person 17 or older, and not attending day school, may enroll.

A visitation day at Midland schools, to be held in April or May, was approved with expenses up to $100, on a motion by Shovlin. Representatives of organizations will visit classrooms and tour facilities. They will be served a lunch.

Samuel Rosatone, maintenance supervisor, reported that he toured school buildings Jan. 2 and his staff did a good job of cleaning.

The board approved a request of the Midland Lions Club for the wind ensemble of the school's music department to play at a party for the Lighthouse for the Blind to be held Jan. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Beaver Falls.

On a recommendation of Jewell, the board approved Walters' attendance at the National Association of Secondary School Principals convention Feb. 9-16 at Detroit.

Jewell reminded members of the school board institute to be held Feb. 16 at North Hills.

The board discussed the possibility of the WPIAL using the new gym for play-off games and decided that the usual rate would be charged if the facility is requested.

General bills in the amount of $5,756.65 were approved, along with interim orders placed last month by Jewell, amounting to $305.08. Cash receipts of $1,137.79 were received and ordered placed in the proper account.

Mrs. Eldama Castelli, treasurer, reported a $31,854.77 balance Dec. 31. Rudolph Presutti, tax collector, reported $1,454.22 in taxes deposited during December, leaving a balance of $16,122 on the 1960 duplicate.

A recommendation of the Carnegie Library Board of Trustees for the purchase of a book list in the amount of $71.65 was approved.

Music Association Event

New Jersey 'Boychoir' Will Sing

The Columbus Boychoir of Princeton, N. J., will appear for the second concert of the Civic Music Association at 8:15 Saturday night at Westgate School auditorium.

The group was originated as a community enterprise in Columbus, Ohio, by Herbert Huffman, then minister of music at the Broad St. Presbyterian Church. Assisted by the Kiwanis Club and the church, he founded the choir in 1940 with an enrollment of 30 boys from the city.

THEY MADE their debut in 1943 at Town Hall in New York City. Annual sellout tours have carried the boys throughout the United States and Canada. Concerts have been given in Carnegie Hall and the Academy of Music in Philadelphia.

The choir has sung with the New York Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the NBC Symphony under Toscanini and the Bach Aria Group. They made a film for RKO, "America's Singing Boys," and the State Department included the Boychoir School in one of its films for distribution around the world.

In 1950 the school moved to Princeton to occupy the former Lambert estate, known as "Albemarle," where it offers an opportunity for combined musical and academic training of high standard to qualified boys regardless of religious or social background.

The curriculum differs from that of other schools only in its emphasis on music, the daily schedule including three hours of rehearsal. Provision is also made for individual lessons and practice in piano and other instruments.

EVEN WHILE on concert tour, the 26 selected singers from a student body of 70, accompanied by teachers, have a nearly normal school routine. Their specially outfitted bus, besides a five-occupant piano and a kitchenette, contains desks at the seats and a public address system. The bus is parked at stopover hotels and serves as a classroom annex.

In 1956, Donald T. Bryant, who was accompanist and associate director, succeeded Huffman as director. A graduate of Capital University at Columbus, he holds a master's degree from Juilliard School of Music in New York, where he majored in piano. Bryant also is a baritone soloist and composed the "Mas for Treble Voices" which received acclaim since first performed by the Boychoir and the Chautauqua Symphony Orchestra.

A NATIVE OF Chesterville, Ohio, he served four years in the armed forces. He is married to Lela Culice, a vocalist, and they have two sons, Travis, a graduate of the school and Stephen Lee, a student at present.

Area boys between 9 and 14 will have the opportunity to audition on the stage following the concert.

Bryant conducts a brief, simple test designed to discover potential or innate musical ability.

Talented boys will be invited to apply for admission to the school or summer camp. Boys, who do not hold concert tickets, will be welcome for auditioning backstage.

Some 20 are needed for all classes except comptometer. Any class will be taught when enough are enrolled and an instructor will be brought in if the school doesn't have one for a particular class. A drop in those interested in Americanization classes was pointed out by Supt. Ralph Jewell.

Blood Donors To Be Sought By Red Cross

Mrs. Robert Hays and Mrs. Jay Kinsey were named as a special committee to prepare a list of blood donors at a meeting of the American Red Cross Monday night in chapter headquarters at Mary Patterson Memorial.

A list of "volunteers on call" has become necessary to replace blood given in transfusions at City Hospital and the Osteopathic Hospital to persons not able to supply their own blood donors, the committee explained. Newcomers to the community and aged patients have a particularly difficult time obtaining donors, they pointed out.

Anyone willing to give blood as a replacement is asked to contact either member of the committee.

Probate Judge Louis Tobin presided during the business meeting and called for a secretary's report from Mrs. Lawrence Black, followed by a survey of tentative plans for purchasing a station wagon if a sufficient community and chapter need exists. Christ Pallis heads the special committee to investigate the proposal. No action was taken.

Middle 'Spread' Not Inevitable

A Chester woman, hurt in a fall on ice at her home, was admitted Monday to City Hospital. Five other area residents were treated after separate mishaps and released.

Mrs. Delores Davis, 241 Indiana Ave., Chester, is in "fairly good" condition with fractures of the right arm received in a fall yesterday afternoon in the back yard at home.

Edward Birkhimer, 77, of 908 Bradshaw Ave. suffered a laceration of a finger of the right hand when caught in a fan of a drier at home.

Swing into another movement that is doubly slimming: Position: Lying on left side, head on folded arm, legs straight down.

Action: Contract the muscles of the buttocks, "pinching" together tightly and hold as you continue the exercise. Raise right leg 4 to 6 inches in air, keeping knee straight. Hold.

Take care not to "roll" toward the side. Lower leg very slowly . . . to a slow count of 10. Repeat 5 to 8 times. "Holding" and lowering slowly helps to increase muscle tone. Repeat the action with the opposite leg.

Swing into another movement that is doubly slimming: Position: Lying on left side, head on folded arm, legs straight down.

Action: Flex right knee briskly toward chest, shoot leg straight down, then swing vigorously toward the rear. Hold the muscle contraction for slow count of 6. The rhythm is: 1—flex, 2—shoot leg downward, 3—swing rearward—hold. Repeat routine four times; change sides and repeat again.

In any exercise routine, a change of position is effective. So stand and swing. Position: Standing, left hand on chairback for support.

MOVEMENT: Swing right leg forward from the hip. Swing up as high as comfortable, then swing briskly rearward. On the rearward swing, you can bend at waist in order to increase the angle of swing. Swing rhythmically for 10 to 20 counts, change sides and swing with the left leg.

What about a diet? If you're too heavy, weight-wise, then calorie curbing will help to bring down your total weight. Don't make the mistake of "dieting" to reduce your hips unless you are overweight. Exercise is the streamlining measure.

Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for "Away With Middle Spread" and "Slim Hips In A Hurry." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Midland Gas Concern Seeks Billing Changes

The Peoples Natural Gas Co. of Pittsburgh, which serves the Midland area, will pass on an estimated $250,000 annual savings in operating expenses if the Public Utility Commission authorizes a change in meter reading and billing procedures.

Stuart E. McMurray, company treasurer, said the company is asking PUC for permission to adopt a widespread utility practice of reading meters on a bi-monthly basis and, if the plan is approved, customer gas bills can be reduced about 7 cents a month.

Domestic and commercial customers of the firm in 13 Western Pennsylvania counties would, as in the past, only pay for the actual amount of gas they consume throughout the year, he explained.

But there would be six monthly bills based on calculated consumption and six bills based on an actual meter reading, he said. If a customer's estimated bill was either too high or too low, in reference to actual consumption, the discrepancy would be corrected when the meter was read the following month, he added.

Telling its own story...in silence!

Here's a man who's learning the story of the 1961 Cadillac in the best of all possible ways.

He has taken an hour out—put himself in the driver's seat—and he's letting the car tell the story in its own inimitable way.

And what's the report?

Well, that new Cadillac is making the most eloquent statement on quality and goodness in all motordom—the tribute of silence!

Even on the by-lanes, it is virtually impossible to detect the sounds of a Cadillac in motion.

And implicit in that ever-present silence is a story well worth the retelling.

It speaks, first of all, of magnificent craftsmanship . . . of care so intense that it has eliminated vibration as a necessary accompaniment to motoring.

Out Of The Air

BY HAL HUMPHREY

It Isn't Funny Any More

All family situation comedies should be removed from TV for at least a year. During that lay-off, a new bunch of writers should be developed and promised a fat bonus for each new idea contributed.

There isn't a situation that hasn't been done a hundred times in these domestic series. On Hal Humphrey "The Tom Ewell Show" last week, the eldest daughter seemed to be getting terribly serious with her boy friend. Anyone who had seen a half season of family comedy on TV just knew the parents were going to begin plotting to nip the kids' getting married.

You also knew that the kids were going to show up smarter than their conniving parents. Ewell and the rest of the cast handled it all capably enough, and the writers had some funny lines for them. But the boredom factor with the home audience must have been immense.

DURING the past two weeks, there have been three family comedies which used the tired old bit about the visiting uncle and his upsetting influence on the kids or some other member of the domestic menage.

Every TV family has gone through the one in which an old classmate comes to town, causing jealousy to rear its ugly head. Junior's grades in school, sister's getting ready for her first date, dad's consternation over the family budget — all these bits and pieces of family life have been beaten to death a hundred different ways.

George Burns used to say that he never would let Gracie go into the kitchen, because he didn't want their series to be called domestic comedy. But before the series was folded with Gracie's retirement, George succumbed — even to eating cereal at the kitchen table himself.

THE ONE THING wrong with family comedy now is that the families we've known on TV have undergone every experience which is allowed for family consumption and which lends itself to the laugh track.

Also, the same writers, generally, are writing family comedy. They move around from show to show, but most of them have utilized every idea they've ever had about family life.

If the suggestion to plow these shows under for a year isn't valid, then something else is going to have to be done. Maybe it is time to forget the middle class, normally adjusted family. Maybe the time has come to move into the slums, or Bel-Air or Park Ave.

"THE REAL McCOYS" has had great success with a hillbilly format, even though the plots aren't much different from "Father Knows Best."

Why not examine the dodos of

In Knoxville, John David Holden, 35, of Mascot, Tenn., and Michael Hugh Compton, 21, of Knoxville, were arrested by the FBI Monday on charges of interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

DAYTON Detective Lt. Richard C. Grundish said Holden told the FBI that he and an unidentified man found Compton in a Dayton hotel room with a man's body.

"Let's get out of here," Compton reportedly told Holden and the other man.

The three fled to the Dayton Municipal Building parking lot across the street where, according to Holden, they stole a city car.

The car, bearing stolen Michigan license plates, was found in Knoxville Monday.

Award Presented Teacher Of Year

Miss Sara Thomas, Chester High School instructor who was named 1960 "Teacher of the Year" for the Northern District of West Virginia, received a mosaic covered Bible emblematic of the honor Sunday.

Mrs. Peter Davis of Weirton, past president of the northern district of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, presented the Bible to Miss Thomas at the home of Mrs. Fred Manning of Georgia Ave., who served as district chairman for the 1960 contest.

At the presentation were Mrs. Clayton Hobbs, president of the Junior Women's Club; Mrs. Robert Mack, president of the Arts Club; Mrs. Ray Huff, president of the Women's Club, and Miss Alberta Abrams, past president of the Civic Club.

The inscription on the Bible, the front of which is centered by a white mother of pearl star, refers to her being "teacher of the year for her pupils who have benefited by their association with her."

4 Children Burned Seriously In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Four children were burned seriously Monday night in a fire that swept a bedroom of their home at 8116 Keyes Ave. SE. Admitted to Lakeside Hospital were Yevette and Yovonne Griffin, 6-year-old twins, and their sisters, Toni, 3, and Pamela, 20 months. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Griffin.

The father was asleep in another upstairs bedroom of the 2 1/2-story frame dwelling when the fire broke out. The mother was downstairs.

Were Potters Overconfident? . . .

Overconfidence has caused many upsets in sports and Coach Jim Harris feels that the Potters were victims of overconfidence in Saturday's game with Youngstown South.

The Potters didn't lose, but came awfully close to defeat. The East Liverpool players probably had every right to feel superior before the game. Examine the records. The Potters were on a four-game winning streak, while South had won only one game in seven starts.

One of South's stars, Jay Cunningham, quit the team last week and was not in the lineup for the East Liverpool tilt. And a look at the measurements shows the Potters, who have about the smallest team in Ohio, actually owning a height advantage.

East Liverpool's play was shabby, but Harris commented, "You have to expect one or two games like that a season. We were lucky to be able to win this kind."

The amazing part of Saturday's game is that the Potters hit on 41 per cent of their shots, one of the highest averages of the season, and scored a new high of 67 points.

Many would ask, How can a team look so bad but yet shoot that well?

Ankney Came Up Fast . . .

PETE ANKNEY, the Kettering-Fairmont coach, has won the baton for the Canton McKinley football job, although some people in Canton question if he has had enough experience.

It was pointed out that Ankney has only been a head coach for two years. His other time was served as an assistant.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

COACH 'TINK' Healey's Northwest team dropped its first game in six starts Friday, a close one, 59-57, to East Canton.

BEVO FRANCIS will play with the Steubenville Stankos, a YMCA Senior League team, in a March of Dimes benefit game against the Pittsburgh Steelers, basketball team, Jan. 26 at the Big Red gym in Steubenville.

A GROUP of area golfers has returned following a holiday stay at the Holly Inn in Pinehurst, N.C.

All members of the Negley Country Club they are: Martin Sheerer, Bob Wolfe, Lester Hall of East Liverpool; Cecil Pugh of Chester and Anthony Beatrice, Bill Hardin, Chuck Norman, Ernie Coff, Joe Ross and Frank Herriott of East Palestine.

BEVO FRANCIS will play with the Steubenville Stankos, a YMCA Senior League team, in a March of Dimes benefit game against the Pittsburgh Steelers, basketball team, Jan. 26 at the Big Red gym in Steubenville.

NICK MUSURACA of East Liverpool received another diploma when he was named to the small college team by the Magazine Of Sigma Chi.

The team honors outstanding athletes who are members of Sigma Chi.

Perfect weather, not below 55, and not a day of rain provided ideal conditions for daily golf.

A STORY involving Bernie Allen has just made its way around the circuit.

When Bernie checked into the hotel at Birmingham, Ala., for the Blue-Gray game, the woman desk clerk asked him if he was the "waterboy" thinking he was too small to do anything else.

We hope the clerk read the account of the Blue-Gray game.

BOB GOALBY sinks his final putt on the 18th green, good for first prize money of $7,500 in the Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament Monday. Goalby, who was one stroke back to start the final 18 holes, scored a 67 for a total of 275 for the 72-hole tourney. (UPI Telephoto)

He had some good talent at Kettering-Fairmont and the Canton job will certainly be a challenge to the young mentor. Ankney was recognized as one of the state's top coaches when he came up with one of the better teams in Ohio two years ago and was named to coach the southern team in the annual North-South game at Canton.

Plans And Problems

Anti-Recession Program Due Soon

(President-elect John F. Kennedy faces two major economic problems as he prepares for his inauguration next week. One is a recession at home. The other is continuing flow of U.S. gold abroad. Here's a report on his likely approach toward the two big economic issues, second in a five-part series on plans and problems of the new administration. It is written by an Associated Press reporter who specializes in business and economics news beats in the nation's capital.)

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—As a presidential candidate, John F. Kennedy urged a faster-growing economy. As the president, his first problem will be to make it grow. The economy hasn't been growing at all since mid-1960. It has slipped into its fourth recession since World War II and most forecasters see little hope of an upturn before spring or summer.

Determined to hurry the recovery, Kennedy is expected to unveil an antirecession program soon after he is inaugurated on Jan. 20.

Even as he does so, however, Kennedy will keep one eye cocked over his shoulder at the second major economic problem he will inherit—the whopping deficits in the U.S. balance of international payments.

With Americans and their government paying out more money than they receive, foreigners are collecting extra dollars with which they can buy American gold. The payments deficit approached $4 billion in 1960 and gold sales to foreigners hit $1.9 billion.

Dealing with this problem cannot be postponed, because it is causing foreign anxiety about the future of the dollar, the keystone in the free world economy. A sour dollar obviously would wreck Kennedy's plans for enhancing the nation's prestige, not to speak of other effects.

Were the Eisenhower administration remaining in office, its attack on the recession might be inhibited to an important extent by the gold problem.

Eisenhower backers say, for example, that such traditional recession cures as pump priming (red ink spending by Uncle Sam) might worsen the gold situation by leaning in the direction of inflation. Rising prices would make it more difficult to sell U.S. goods abroad and earn the money that could reduce the payments deficit and buttress the dollar.

Kennedy, while deeply concerned about the gold-payments problem, will give first priority to the recession. He is expected to prime the economic pump, probably through a speedup in defense spending and road building, stimulation of housing and expanded unemployment benefits.

President Eisenhower has planned for a balanced budget in the coming fiscal year, and Kennedy has declared himself generally in favor of that objective, too. Whether it can be achieved, however, seems certain to hinge on actual economic developments, as well as presidential intent. The Eisenhower administration has experienced several big deficit years due mainly to business slumps. Should emergency government action become necessary, economists believe Kennedy will not hesitate to propose them—including deficit-spending measures.

While the incoming president may trim his antirecession program to a limited extent because of the gold situation, he will not let gold call the tune.

Should the recession get severe enough, Kennedy might even ask Congress for a temporary tax cut to give the public more spending money. With Eisenhower, this would be a most unlikely maneuver.

In the final analysis, Kennedy may be willing to take a few risks with the gold situation because of his avowed determination to promote a dynamic economy able to afford broader social welfare programs. This goal will have equal rank with his foreign policy objectives.

The President-elect made this clear during the campaign by repeatedly arguing there can be no strength abroad without strength at home.

Indeed, Kennedy contends the image of a vital, expanding America would do much to dispel nagging foreign fears about the dollar.

Even so, he won't be able to let the gold problem slide, particularly since his antirecession measures will tend to raise new questions about the gold situation.

Eisenhower has attacked the payments deficit by curbing federal spending abroad, calling for reducing the number of military dependents overseas, promoting exports, and urging more help from other nations in financing the free world's defenses and development.

Kennedy may make some modifications but won't undo the whole package unless there is a significant reduction in the gold drain. Since foreigners bought more than $370 million of U.S. gold last month, that reduction is yet to come.

Finally, even as he worries about gold and the recession, Kennedy will be pushing for a long-term economic growth program and an attack on the persistent unemployment problem.

In one of the sharpest shifts of policy direction in the economic field, the Eisenhower administration's preoccupation with fighting inflation is expected to be subordinated to new emphasis on full employment and economic expansion.

CD Granted Storage Space

The Midland Civil Defense was given permission Monday evening by the Midland Board of Education to store part of a $33,000 emergency hospital in a room under the high school auditorium.

Daniel Orlando, CD director, attended the meeting and heard the board's decision to his written request after a motion by Edward Cilli, property chairman.

Orlando pointed out in his request that part of the hospital should be stored elsewhere in case of fire in the Borough Building, where it is presently stored.

The Civil Defense group met Saturday night and discussed the possibility of moving the hospital this coming Saturday to the high school.

Plans for a benefit wrestling match to be held in February were discussed.

Orlando asked for a larger turnout of members. He said there is an enrollment of over 200 but only a few attended Saturday's meeting. No new members were enrolled last month.

Orlando spoke on Civil Defense, police and fires at a meeting of the 7th St. Parent-Teacher Association Thursday. The auxiliary police school will continue the next few weeks on Monday evenings in the Borough Building.

Reappraisal Program Retarded By Weather

Columbiana County's reappraisal program is going along slowly due to the recent heavy snows, according to Adin Kauffman of Columbiana, head of the property re-evaluation.

At present, Columbiana village is approximately 70 per cent completed, the last of villages a and towns.

Kauffman said he still has one appraiser in Glenmoor and one in St. Clair Township wrapping up the township and as soon as Columbiana is completed, the appraiser there will be assigned to another township.

Toledo Man Is Slain In Burglary Attempt

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP)—Willie James Felton, 34, of Toledo, Ohio, was shot and killed Saturday by store owner Rufus Freeman, who told police he caught Felton and another man burglarizing his store about midnight.

Freeman told officers he started shooting when Felton aimed his shotgun at him. The storekeeper then shot the other man, Roosevelt Jordan, 35, of Ruleville, Miss., in the leg as he fled.

How Can I? By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I treat work shirts and pants that are badly soiled with oil and grease?

A. Soak in a large vessel full of cleaning fluid. This takes out most of the oil and grease, which settle to the bottom of the fluid, and then you'll have better success with laundering the articles.

It requires quite a bit of fluid, but the fluid can be poured off the sediment in the bottom of the vessel and used indefinitely. Kerosene applied to oil and grease stains will also start to break them down and make washing much more effective.

Q. How can I prevent the knots in new wood from "burning through" and discoloring my finished paint job?

A. Brush over all knots in the wood with orange shellac, and this will prevent the pitch from the knots from penetrating your paint.

Q. How can I clean some gilt picture frames?

A. You can clean these nicely, without danger of tarnishing, with a cloth dampened in beer.

2 Donations Made By Post

Contributions to 2 area organizations were approved by Chester American Legion Post 121 at a meeting Monday night at the post home.

Donations of $15 each were authorized for the Hancock County retarded Children's Association and the Seeing Hand Association of Wheeling.

Plans were made for the annual oratorical contest for Chester High School for which 3 cash prizes of $25, $15 and $10 will be awarded.

Plans were also discussed for sponsoring a day of prayer as part of a national program of prayer for the presidential inauguration. Letters are to be sent to ministers asking them to participate.

Robert Johnston said a social meeting will be held Friday night at the post home. Ernest John reported on Christmas basket distributions.

Anthony Amedo, commander, was in charge of the meeting which 45 attended.

Sandwich large fish steaks together with a bread stuffing and bake. Adding a little minced pickle to the stuffing will contribute a flavor that goes well with fish.

Jones & Laughlin Seen Operating As 'Nuisance'

CLEVELAND (AP) — Testifying before a City Council committee at a hearing Monday night on the oxygen process of steel making, air pollution commissioner Albert W. Lucuoso said the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. is operating illegally as a "nuisance."

He made it clear, however, that he would do nothing about the matter on his own initiative.

"If it is the wish of this body (Council as a whole) to shut down J & L, then it will be my duty to do so," the commissioner said.

The main issue was left unresolved for the time being after nearly four hours of testimony. The issue is whether Republic Steel Corp. should be permitted to adopt the oxygen process before instituting pollution controls. J & L is operating without such controls. Both firms promise to install them later.

Cancer Film Shown For PTA At Pughtown School Meeting

"Inside Magoo," a film produced by the American Cancer Society, was screened when the Pughtown Parent-Teacher Association met Monday night in the elementary building.

Mrs. Dave Thomas of Weirton, guest speaker and a representative of ACS, discussed the progress made in diagnosis and treatment in the past eight years.

Council Told Of Salineville Blacktop Plan

SALINEVILLE — Plans for blacktopping Route 39 and a proposed widening project for the East End intersection of Route 39 and Main St. were revealed at a meeting of Council Monday night.

Mayor Kenneth Leishman reported on a meeting with Ohio Highway Department officials at which plans were reported on a $30,000 blacktopping of Route 39 from the Carroll County line.

The mayor said a widening of the approaches to the intersection at E. Main St. and the state highway has been suggested, but an easement will have to be obtained from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. whose tracks lie in the area.

The village's share of the blacktopping project will be 5 per cent, or $1,500, Mayor Leishman said.

Council ordered legislation prepared for authorizing the funds. The work is to begin in the spring.

Mayor Leishman said it is possible the Columbiana County Highway Department may replace an old iron bridge on E. Main St. near the Central School this summer.

A request was received from residents of the West End for a bridge over a creek from Route 39 to Spring St. Mayor Leishman said he would donate some 32-foot lumber for the work and planks are to be obtained.

Short Blamed In Fire At Midland Residence

A short in wiring was blamed for a fire at 4 a. m. today at 332 Midland Ave., a residence owned by Frank Flame and Mrs. Charles Cinderich. There was minor damage.

Fire Chief Vincent D'Itri said police, who used police car extinguishers, had the fire under control when he and Lt. Daniel Orlando arrived with firemen. The fire had reached the joists, D'Itri said.

The commissioners authorized the attendance of Robert Bycroft, county welfare director, at a Northeast Ohio District welfare directors' meeting at Canton Wednesday.

Harold Loutzenheiser, pastor of the Fredericktown Christian Church, was not retained as minister when the congregation held its semi-annual meeting Monday night to elect church and Sunday School officers.

The minister did not receive the necessary 30 per cent of the votes of those attending the meeting, a spokesman said. Elders of the church will conduct services until a new minister can be called.

Four elders, five trustees and six deacons were elected.

Robert Allen and Martha Burgess were re-elected clerk and treasurer, respectively.

Eddie Simms was named Sunday School superintendent with Ned Toland assistant. Maxine Daille was elected secretary with Evelyn Walker assistant secretary.

James Craig was named reporter and librarian and Molly Craig was selected as secretary-treasurer of the Vacation Bible School.

Free Mooring Permits Due At Zepernick Lake

LISBON — Zepernick Lake on Route 172 near New Garden, beyond Guilford Lake, is one of 13 state lakes where free boat mooring permits will be issued this year by the Ohio Division of Wildlife, according to an announcement from Columbus.

Numbered tie-up stakes will be provided at a suitable location and permits, each allowing the use of one stake, will be issued one to a person.

The new policy is the result of action taken by the Wildlife Council at its January meeting. The plans for issuing the permits are not yet complete, but will be announced in the future. Interested persons may obtain further information about them soon from county game protectors and Division of Wildlife district offices.

Only one such mooring station will be set up at Zepernick. None has been provided for Guilford.

*New growth, new progress
new stability for NATIONAL STEEL*

The great expansion program that was begun three years ago by National Steel Corporation will reach its completion during 1961. Costing in excess of $300 million, it is a signal of continuing progress. It is the result of our never-ending search for the new and the better in facilities, processes, and products.

This program is the kind of thing, throughout our economy, which provides the solid foundation for continuing American prosperity ... and for which there is no substitute. It is tangible evidence that private citizens are willing to back their firm confidence in the future with huge amounts of private money.

Important benefits will flow in many directions from this expansion.

To our employees — it means better, more secure, more stable jobs.

To our customers — it means assurance of steel supply in volume during periods of peak demand. In any period, it means steel of the highest, most uniform quality yet produced.

To our company — it means higher efficiency, lower costs, greater stability throughout our operations ... factors which provide us with a stronger competitive position in the market.

To you as a consumer of steel — it means better products because of better steel. It means greater value for your dollar in the steel products you buy.

As our new facilities become operative in 1961, each will add its distinct and important contribution to the firm foundation for future growth, progress and stability at National Steel.

Six major steps to further progress

At Great Lakes Steel
In Detroit, the computer-controlled Mill of the Future — fastest, most powerful 80" hot-strip mill in the world — will provide more and better auto body sheets.

At Midwest Steel
near Chicago, the most modern and efficient steel finishing plant in existence will provide the finest tin plate, galvanized sheets, hot and cold rolled sheets.

At Weirton Steel
in Weirton, W. Va., new and improved facilities will increase the production and improve the quality of Weirton's tin plate, galvanized and cold rolled sheets.

Our new Research Center will be National Steel's headquarters for expanded, continuing exploration of new and better raw materials, facilities, manufacturing processes and products.

New Basic Oxygen Furnaces
at Great Lakes Steel, construction will start in 1961 on two basic oxygen furnaces — the largest ever built — which will add new capacity and greater efficiency.

At Stran-Steel
in Terre Haute, new facilities will boost output of popular color-coated steel panels for Stran-Steel's new line of contemporary pre-engineered buildings.
